SECURITY DETAILS(RE)INSURERS LIABILITY CLAUSE*(Re)insurer's liability several not joint

The liability of a (re)insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other (re)insurers party to this contract. A (re)insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. A (re)insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other (re)insurer. Nor is a (re)insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other (re)insurer that may underwrite this contract.

The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by a (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown next to its stamp. This is subject always to the provision concerning "signing" below.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is a (re)insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other (re)insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Proportion of liability

Unless there is "signing" (see below), the proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by each (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown next to its stamp and is referred to as its "written line".

Where this contract permits, written lines, or certain written lines, may be adjusted ("signed"). In that case a schedule is to be appended to this contract to show the definitive proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by each (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). A definitive proportion (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of a Lloyd's syndicate taken together) is referred to as a "signed line". The signed lines shown in the schedule will prevail over the written lines unless a proven error in calculation has occurred.

Although reference is made at various points in this clause to "this contract" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

WRITTEN LINES: Percentage of whole

SIGNING PROVISIONS: In the event that the written lines hereon exceed 100% of the order, any lines written to "To Stand" will be allocated in full and other lines will be signed down in equal proportions so that the aggregate signed lines are equal to 100% of the order without further agreement of any of the (re)insurers.

However:

- a) in the event that the placement of the order is not completed by the commencement date of the period of insurance then all lines written by that date will be signed in full;
- b) the (re)insured may elect for the disproportionate signing of (re)insurers' lines, without further specific agreement of (re)insurers, providing that any such variation is made prior to the commencement date of the period of insurance, and that lines written "To Stand" may not be varied without documented agreement of those (re)insurers;
- c) the signed lines resulting from application of the above provisions can be varied, before or after the commencement date of the period of insurance, by documented agreement of the (re)insured and all (re)insurers whose lines are to be varied. The variation to the contracts will take effect only when all such (re)insurers have agreed, with the resulting variation in signed lines commencing from the date set out in the agreement.

Any recoveries from underlying reinsurance shall be dis-regarded for the purposes of formulating the Ultimate Net Loss hereon.

ARTICLE 3

TERM

- A. This Contract shall be effective for a 12 month period beginning 12:01 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, January 1st 2014 and having an Expiration Date of 12:01 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, January 1st 2015 and, subject to clause C below, shall apply to Losses Discovered and reported to the Reinsurer during the period commencing on the effective date and ending 30 days following the Expiration Date on all Covered Risks dated on or after January 1st, 2012 by the Reinsured until the Expiration Date.

In respect of each Extending Reinsured, the Reinsurer will remain liable during the extended reporting period on Covered Risks in force at the Expiration Date of this Contract on Losses Discovered and reported to the Reinsurer from the effective date of this Contract until the last day of the extended reporting period so elected, subject to payment of the applicable premium set out below. Each Extending Reinsured shall pay an Extended Reporting Premium based upon its pro rata share of the Ground Up Exposed Premium Income applicable to the extended reporting period in accordance with the schedule below:

1 year extended reporting

An additional premium equal to 50% of the Extending Reinsureds' pro rata share of the final premium in the PREMIUM Article of this Contract

- H. Losses excluded pursuant to the Nuclear Incident Exclusion attached hereto as Addendum A.

ARTICLE 7

PREMIUM

The Reinsured shall pay a minimum and deposit premium of USD 490,500 to the Reinsurer in four equal quarterly instalments on January 1st 2014, April 1st 2014, July 1st 2014 and October 1st 2014. Within 60 days of the Expiration Date the aforementioned minimum and deposit premium shall be adjusted and the amount payable to the Reinsurer shall be calculated at a rate of 9.01 % of the Ground Up Exposed Premium Income as defined in Article 9, for the period this Contract up to the Expiration Date. Premium adjustments shall continue annually thereafter, until all the Reinsureds' Ground Up Exposed Premium Income for the period of this Contract is finalised.

For the purposes of this Contract a Subscribing Reinsured's pro rata share of the premium hereon shall be the proportionate share of each Subscribing Reinsured reinsurance rate hereon times such Subscribing Reinsured share of ground up exposed premium income divided by the aggregate of the Ground Up Exposed Premium Income. The sum of the reinsurance rate hereon times each Subscribing Reinsured share of ground up exposed premium income will be subject to the minimum and deposit premium contained within this Article.

ARTICLE 8

REINSTATEMENT

Reinsurer agree that in the event of the whole or any portion of the Limit of Liability hereunder being exhausted by payment of Ultimate Net Loss, the amount so exhausted shall be automatically reinstated from the time of payment by the Reinsurer of such Ultimate Net Loss, always provided that Reinsurer shall never be liable for more than USD 7,000,000 in respect of Ultimate Net Loss on any Covered Risk, nor more than USD 21,000,000 Ultimate Net Loss for all Covered Risks for all Subscribing Reinsureds during the Term - representing two reinstatements only. The amount of any Ultimate Net Loss(es) for each of the two reinstatements subject to the Reinsurers Limit of Liability shall be automatically reinstated in proportion to the Ultimate Net Loss paid by the Reinsurers hereon based upon the final premium paid (as determined in Article 7) by the Reinsured to which such Ultimate Net Loss was paid plus aggregate Extended Reporting Premium paid by the Extending Reinsureds for any of the extended reporting provisions under Article 3.B of this Contract.

It is understood by the Reinsureds that the Subscribing Reinsured which received Ultimate Net Loss payments that are subject to reinstatement shall be solely responsible for 100% of the additional premium due to the Reinsurer in accordance with this Article. However, in the event of more than one Subscribing Reinsured being liable, the additional premium will be payable by each in proportion to its respective share of Ultimate Net Loss so reinstated.

Reinstatement premium shall be paid to the Reinsurer simultaneously with the payment of Ultimate Net Loss payments. The Reinsurer shall have the right to offset these amounts.

Such additional premium shall be paid simultaneously with settlement of losses hereunder. In the event of a Loss settlement being made prior to the finalisation of the Ground Up Exposed Premium Income for the Term, the reinstatement premium shall be provisionally computed on the minimum and deposit premium and adjusted once the final premium under Article 7 is ascertained.

The Reinsured shall have a duty to investigate and instigate by its right of subrogation or otherwise to recoup Losses paid under this Contract; when, it determines such recovery actions are reasonably practicable and financially justified.

For the purposes of this Article the Reinsurer will collectively appoint a single representative to be associated with such claims reported hereunder.

Notwithstanding that this Contract is one of reimbursement of the Reinsured, the Reinsurer agrees that settlement of Ultimate Net Loss will be payable by the Reinsurer immediately upon being furnished by the Reinsured with reasonable evidence of the amount paid or to be paid in excess of the Retained Amount.

ARTICLE 14

FUNDING

This clause applies only to those Subscribing Reinsurers who are subject to the Special Termination Funding Provision (defined below) and to those who do not qualify for full credit with any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the Reinsured's reserves. This clause shall not apply to Lloyd's Syndicates unless they are subject to the Special Termination Funding Provision.

If a Subscribing Reinsurer's rating has been downgraded below "A-" by A.M. Best or "BBB+" by S&P or it has been subject to any event described in clauses C or D of Article 4, Special Termination and the Reinsured has not terminated such Subscribing Reinsurer's participation in this Contract, then the Reinsured may, subject to notice (and without regard to the last paragraph of Article 4), require that such Subscribing Reinsurer fund its share of Reserves as provided below (the "Special Termination Funding Provision")

When funding by a Letter of Credit, the Reinsurer agrees to apply for and secure timely delivery to the Reinsured of a clean, irrevocable and unconditional Letter of Credit issued by a bank and containing provisions acceptable to the insurance regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Reinsured and the Reinsured in an amount equal to the Reinsurer's proportion of the Reserves, less the value of any accrued reinstatement premium that would be due, and remains unpaid, under the provisions of REINSTATEMENT Article. Such Letter of Credit shall be issued for a period of not less than one year, and shall be automatically extended for one year from its date of expiration or any future expiration date unless ninety (90) days prior to any expiration date, the issuing bank shall notify the Reinsured by certified or registered mail that the issuing bank elects not to consider the Letter of Credit extended for any additional period in which case the Subscribing Reinsurer shall secure replacement funding pursuant to the terms of this Article.

The Reinsurer and Reinsured agree that the Letters of Credit provided by the Reinsurer pursuant to the provisions of this Contract may be drawn upon at any time, notwithstanding any other provision of this Contract, and be utilized by the Reinsured or any successor, by operation of law, of the Reinsured including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator of the Reinsured for the following purposes, unless otherwise provided for in a separate Trust Contract:

- a) to reimburse the Reinsured for the Reinsurer's Obligations, the payment of which is due under the terms of this Contract and which has not been otherwise paid;
- b) to make refund of any sum which is in excess of the actual amount required to pay the Reinsurer's Obligations under this Contract;
- c) to fund an account with the Reinsured for the Reinsurer's Obligations. Such cash deposit shall be held in an interest bearing account separate from the Reinsured's other assets, and interest thereon not in excess of the prime rate shall accrue to the benefit of the Reinsurer;

In the event the amount drawn by the Reinsured on any Letter of Credit is in excess of the actual amount determined to be due, the Reinsured shall promptly return to the Reinsurer the excess amount so drawn. All of the foregoing shall be applied without diminution because of insolvency on the part of the Reinsured or the Reinsurer.

The issuing bank shall have no responsibility whatsoever in connection with the propriety of withdrawals made by the Reinsured or the disposition of funds withdrawn, except to ensure that withdrawals are made only upon the order of properly authorized representatives of the Reinsured.

When and as estimated by the Reinsured but never more frequently than quarterly, the Reinsured shall prepare a specific statement of the Reinsurer's Obligations, for the sole purpose of amending the Letter of Credit, in the following manner:

- a) If the statement shows that the Reinsurer's Obligations exceed the balance of credit as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice of such excess, secure delivery to the Reinsured of an amendment to the Letter of Credit increasing the amount of credit by the amount of such difference.
- b) If, however, the statement shows that the Reinsurer's Obligations are less than the balance of credit as of the statement date, the Reinsured shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of written request from the Reinsurer, release such excess credit by accepting an amendment to the Letter of Credit reducing the amount of credit available by the amount of such excess credit.
