

ATGF AGENT UPDATE

Dear ATGF Agents

ATGF continually strives to assist our agents with compliance issues and best practices. In an effort to reduce remittance discrepancies and ensure our agents are remitting the correct payment amount for issued policies, effective May 1, 2018, ATGF will not accept checks if the remittance amount for a policy is incorrect.

As you know, ATGF does not prepare nor participate in the closing process. It is the responsibility of the Agent to properly charge and collect the correct dollar amounts for premiums on insurance the Agent sells. As such, it is important to collect premium based on the amount due as reflected in EPIC, as some software programs do not correctly calculate the premium due. While we are in the process of working with several software vendors to make sure they have our current rate schedules reflected in their rate tables, please remember to confirm any rates generated in third party software are the correct rates.
